

Project Purpose:

The proposed project's purpose would accommodate expanding transportation demands, increase mobility and accessibility, and provide an east to west transportation connection

Project Need:

The proposed project is needed to address population and economic growth, regional transportation demand, and system linkages in the project area